Dina Schultz Named Senior Vice President of Pekin Insurance®

Pekin Insurance is excited to announce the newest member of its Executive Team, Dina Schultz. Schultz was recently named the Senior Vice President (SVP) and Chief Operating Officer (COO) of The Farmers Automobile Insurance Association and SVP of Pekin Life Insurance Company.

Prior to joining the Executive Team, Schultz was SVP and COO at Society Insurance in Wisconsin. In her tenure there, she oversaw the strategic leadership of internal operations. Additionally, she led strategic planning that successfully shaped and guided the future growth of the company. She also served as the Vice President of Sales and Marketing, where she implemented a new brand and expanded into other states. Schultz spent 10 years at Missouri Employers Mutual, the state's leading workers compensation carrier. While she served as COO, the company grew from a startup to $150 million in revenue.

Schultz has served as a board member of the Wisconsin Restaurant Association and is a past president of the University of Wisconsin, Fond du Lac Foundation. She is an active member of the National Alliance of Mental Illness (NAMI) - Dane County, a Rotarian of the Fond du Lac Rotary Club, and previous board member of the Cops for Kids Foundation in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin.

A native of Camp Point, Illinois, Schultz earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing, Public Relations, and Advertising with a minor in Psychology from Stephens College.

Pekin Insurance has been in business since 1921 and is one of the leading insurers in the state of Illinois. Pekin Insurance offers multiple lines of insurance in 24 states through its growing agency force, which now totals over 1,100 independent agencies and over 11,000 insurance producers. The company is headquartered in Pekin, Illinois.
